London's famous red buses and the underground called The Tube are already a cultural experience. Still, if you don't want to use London buses or underground, you may try London taxis called black cabs. The drivers are usually friendly and helpful and they know London very well indeed. You can also take a boat trip to Hampton Court.

D) This text deals with...

London is not a cheap city, but it doesn't mean you will have to spend much money on food there. There are a lot of fish and chips shops in London, where the meals are delicious and inexpensive. A lot of Londoners and visitors to the city love pies and delicious chocolate cakes from local bakeries. In London you can also find takeaways and pubs.

E) This text deals with...

London is a very old city. It grew up around the first point where the Roman invaders found the Thames narrow enough to build a bridge. They founded a Celtic settlement then known as Londinium and later they turned it into a large port and important trading centre with a long wall of stone and brick. London grew and became a great city we can see today.

A cat and a rooster

Do you know this story? Once a cat a rooster for the evening meal. The cat wanted a good excuse for killing the bird. "I need to rid the world of you," she told the rooster. "You constantly make your horrible noises throughout the night, interrupting sleep. The world will be off without you." "No," said the rooster, "I crow for the good of the people. I wake up each morning when it is time to start work for the day, so that they may earn their living." "What a fool!" said the cat and the bird.
